Large bathing bag made from cotton fabrics

Instructions No. 615

Difficulty: Advanced

In this large bag there is room for everything you need for a trip to the bathing lake, even the large self sewn beach sheet. Especially practical are the small patch pockets that keep glasses, flip-flops, magazines and the like handy.

And this is how you do it

Cut the bag to size according to the sketch 2 x each from red and turquoise fabric, taking into account a seam allowance of approx. 0.5 cm all round.
Place one red and one turquoise cutout each left on left, thereby placing the iron-on fleece between the side surfaces and the front and placing the stronger Decovil between the bottom surfaces. Place the permanent iron-on film on top and iron the fabrics together at cotton temperature.
Then lay the front and back of the bag right side up and fix it with, Pins closing the side and bottom seams.
Place the open edges in the lower corners so that they can be closed with a straight seam, then turn the bag over.
Iron the fabric for the small pockets, which are to be sewn on the outside of the beach bag, onto Decovil for stabilization, then cut to the desired size with the pinking shears. Alternatively, the edges can also be missed to obtain exact edges.
Iron individual motifs from the printed fabric at cotton temperature on the rough side of the iron-on fleece, then cut them out with the serrated scissors. Peel off the protective paper and iron the motifs onto the various pocket cuts.
Fix Pins and sew on the blanks for the small pockets

Important: Sew the newspaper loop only on the long sides and adjust the distance so that there is enough space to insert a newspaper
Cut the turquoise blue fabric for the handles to the desired length and iron it onto the strap helper, then fold it and cover it with a strip of red fabric. Then sew up the edges.
Fold the upper edge of the bag inwards, Pins fix it with and sew it up with a short edge, sewing the straps on according to the cut mark.
