Angels are definitely part of the Christmas season! They look great in flower arrangements, at the window or as a gift tag
They are not only for adults a great handicraft project, but even the smallest ones can create these cute little angels!

And so you make the angels:

Download the templates, print them out or take the templates to hand and transfer the cut skirt to the felt and the wings to the fabric. Now-Felt. cut out the circle and the wings.

Use the Glitter Liner to paint the outer edge of the cut out circle and the wings. For the wings you can paint further patterns and the suggestion of with the Feathers Glitter Liner. Let everything dry well.

Then prime one of the smaller ones white Wooden balls and decorate it with the Glitter Liner after it has dried

Now take Wooden ball a large one and paint it with hair and faces. There are no limits to your creativity. So the angels can wink, have a kissing mouth, sleep and much more. Below we show an example of how you can easily create a beautiful face in our step-by-step photo series.

Example of a magical face:

Then glue them Wooden balls together and attach the skirt. Finally, glue the wings on and form Chenille wire a belt and a halo and glue them on as well

Repeat the procedure described above for all other angels.
