Bracelet with lucky charm

Instructions No. 2732

Difficulty: Beginner

Working time: 1 hour 30 Minutes

You can easily make your own bracelet with little lucky charms. With the right beads and accessories, you will certainly succeed in creating a very personal piece of jewellery.

Bracelet with lucky charm

First, string small Rocaille beads on two micro macramé cords. The length of the cords should be about the circumference of your wrist (leave the cords with the beads a little longer rather than too short).

Cut three strands approx. 30 cm long from the mint-coloured macramé cord and braid them together.

Then pull the VBS "Lucky charm" pendants onto individual threads to create a great look.

Lay all the crafted ribbons next to each other and knot the ends together with a piece of the cord.

Put some jewellery glue into the fasteners. Allow the glue to flash off briefly. Then insert the ends of the bracelet and press both fasteners firmly together. Let the jewellery glue or the bracelet dry overnight so that the individual strands are well fixed.
