Step 1: Preparing the soap base

To start your project, cut the transparent soap base into small cubes. These are easier and more even to melt, which guarantees you a perfect result.

Step 2: Melting the soap

Pour the cubes of soap base into a universal melting pot and heat them slowly. Use a thermometer to check that the temperature does not exceed 60 degrees to ensure the quality of the soap.

Step 3: Adding fragrance and color

Now comes the exciting part. When the soap has completely melted, add your desired fragrance oil. You can also add a nourishing skin oil to make the soap extra pleasant for the skin . Then use green soap colour, to create the typical Christmas tree look. You can adjust the intensity of the color to your liking.

Step 4: Pouring into the fir tree mold

Now carefully pour the colored soap mixture into the silicone mould. Make sure to pour slowly to avoid air bubbles and to achieve a smooth surface. Leave the soap to harden for several hours. Even hardening is crucial for the appearance and durability of the soap.

Step 5: Demolding and packaging

Once the soap is firm, carefully remove it from the Christmas tree-silicone mould. For a particularly attractive presentation, you can place the soap in a metal tin with a little wood wool . This pretty packaging protects the soap and makes it the perfect Christmas gift.

With these instructions, you can quickly create beautiful Christmas tree soaps that will bring a touch of Christmas into your home. Experiment with different fragrance and color combinations and let your creativity run wild!
