Embroidery hoop for birth

Instructions No. 2180

Difficulty: Beginner

Working time: 4 Hours

A great and personal gift idea for birth or baptism is this embroidery frame with rainbow. It was designed with the napkin technique and other embellishments were embroidered.

- 1. Cut out the rainbow on the napkin and remove the unprinted layers.
- 2. Apply napkin varnish for textiles to the fabric and place the rainbow on top. Now apply another layer of napkin varnish.
- 3. After drying, fix the napkin with the iron. Follow the instructions on the product packaging.
- 4. Tension the fabric as tightly as possible in the embroidery ring.
- 5. Now embroider motifs or lettering as you wish. If you wish, you can draw them on the fabric with a line-ex pen beforehand. In our example we embroidered a name with the straight stitch, the clouds were filled in with the knot stitch.

- 6. Once you are happy with your result, you can cut off the remaining fabric on the back and stick the edges to the embroidery ring from behind with craft glue.
- 7. Thread pompoms onto sewing thread and glue them to the bottom of the frame. Another piece of sewing thread is attached to the top as a hanger.
