

Enchanting bridal bouquet with Fleurogami flowers

Instructions No. 571

🔪🔪🔪 Difficulty: Advanced

🕒 Working time: 50 Minutes

This romantic bridal bouquet is bound in a downward flowing form. It consists of folded Fleurogami flowers and white Paper Flowers, combined with silk strings and elegant glass wax beads.

Here's how it works

Pick up Paper-Soft-Color with the nudge brush from the sponge in the paint can and color the Coloured paper in circling movements. Then ink the silicone stamp with Paper-Soft-Color and stamp the squiggles onto the inked sheets of paper.

Cut approx. 120 squares, each 7 x 7 cm, from the coloured Coloured paper . Fold the paper squares diagonally, then the two corners towards the top. Fold the two wings outwards to the edge, put both wings up as if they were a bag and then press flat. Fold the tips of the wings downwards, fold the wings inwards, so that a square is formed again. Glue the right wing to the left wing, then join 6 elements with tape-Ribbon to form a flower.

Cut the support wire in half, stick it through the florigami flower and fix a white Pearl in the middle with hot glue. Glue two decorative paper flowers (finished accessory) together, stick a support wire through the middle of each flower and glue an orange Pearl on it

Roll up white Straw silk paper, coarse fibre silk or a lace fabric into a bag, stick the support wire and a Pearl in the middle. With the Cutter cut a hole of approx. 2 cm deep into the plug-in ball, glue a 20 cm long round rod with hot glue into it. Fold the fibre silk lengthwise and pin it around the round rod in folds with strawflower needles underneath the plugging ball. Shorten the wires of the individual pieces and insert them into the ball in rounds close together

Leave individual paper flowers on the longer wire and work them into the bouquet like a waterfall. Fill the spaces between the wires with remnants of fibre silk or Straw silk paper / lace

Place the silk strings loosely around the bouquet and pin them in place. Let the silk strings run out in different lengths, stick single paper flowers and orange beads on the strings. Finally wrap the stick with Organza ribbon , fix the ends with hot glue.
