Miniature lighthouse in a screw-top jar

Instructions No. 3620

Difficulty: Beginner

Working time: 30 Minutes

Are you ready to transform your home into a relaxed, maritime oasis? Find out here how you can create a decorative coastal landscape in a candy jar in no time at all. This combination of nature and the sea adds a breath of fresh air to any room and creates a calming ambience

Start by filling the candy jar with some colored sand. The sand but also conveys a feeling of beach and sea.

Position the lighthouse in the sand. It forms the visual centerpiece of the miniature maritime scene.

Take the side cutter and cut the stems of your succulents to a length that allows them to stand upright in the glass. Then place them in sand, so that they are stable and look good. Add other accessories to complete your lighthouse landscape: place small fence elements in the sand and sprinkle shell granules on the sand surface.

The screw-top jar with the maritime lighthouse landscape is a real eye-catcher when fully arranged and will convey a feeling of beach and sea.

Now it's your turn! Buy the necessary materials in our online store and create your own maritime work of art today. Bring a piece of beach feeling into your home!
