Osterglocken aus Filz und Perlen

Instructions No. 512

Glowing daffodils Felt and pearl stars are quickly and easily created with these instructions. In combination with plain white clay pots they look particularly pretty.

And so it goes

Paint the clay pots white, after drying fill them with dry clay and stick the Iceland Moss on the surface with a straw flower needle.

Use the template to make one Stencil from solid cardboard and cut out the flowers from modelling felt.
Bend small hats for the typical chalice shape from wire mesh.
Soak the flowers made of modelling felt in water, then place them over the wire hats to dry.
After drying, wipe orange Handicraft paint over the edges.
Thread on the long strands of the Pearl Stars white rocailles, on the short yellow rocailles. Connect two strands each with an eyelet and then bend them into shape.
Cut off a piece of figure wire and dye it Russian green, let it dry.
Cut a hole in the middle of the modelled flower and glue the wire inside.
Glue the pearl star into the felt flower.
Turn a piece to the Acetate ribbon rose, fix it with wire and glue it into the pearl blossom.

Terracotta pot Stick the finished flower into the wire.
Cut it out of green Felt leaves and glue it to the flower stems with hot glue.
